

Durable medical equipment (DME) suppliers, many of them being small businesses, are being forced to close their doors due to reimbursement cuts, regulatory restrictions, and excessive and unreasonable audits. The map indicates the number and percentage increase or decrease in DME suppliers over the last ten years.

Have you had issues getting home medical equipment? Tell us your story!

peopleforqualitycare.org

*The information provided in this map came from data retrieved from Freedom of Information Acts (FOIA) and formal requests from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS).